Este libro analiza la influencia que en un sistema educativo tiene la política, entendida como el conjunto de medidas, de cualquier tipo, que toman los más altos responsables políticos, es decir, jefes de Estado y presidentes de Gobierno y colaboradores, en sus respectivos países y, en determinados casos, en otros países, territorios y comunidades. Se estudia el efecto de la guerra de agresión, de la ocupación militar, del exilio y de la dictadura sobre los sistemas educativos una vez que se ha repasado el contexto político donde se produce ese efecto. Los países y territorios estudiados han sufrido, y aún sufren, a causa de esas agresiones, las cuales hacen que sus sistemas educativos funcionen en situaciones límite: son Palestina, Sahara Occidental, Iraq, Guinea

Ecuatorial y, también, los millones de refugiados de diferentes países.

Black Skin, White Masks is a classic, devastating account of the dehumanising effects of colonisation experienced by black subjects living in a white world. First published in English in 1967, this book provides an unsurpassed study of the psychology of racism using scientific analysis and poetic grace. Franz Fanon identifies a devastating pathology at the heart of Western culture, a denial of difference, that persists to this day. A major influence on civil rights, anti-colonial, and black consciousness movements around the world, his writings speak to all who continue the struggle for political and cultural liberation. With an introduction by Paul Gilroy, author of There Ain't No Black in the Union Jack.

Two young boys encounter the best and worst of humanity during the Holocaust in this powerful read that USA Today called "as memorable an introduction to the subject as The Diary of Anne Frank." Berlin, 1942: When Bruno returns home from school one day, he discovers that his belongings are being packed in crates. His father has received a promotion and the family must move to a new house far, far away, where there is no one to play with and nothing to do. A tall fence stretches as far as the eye can see and cuts him off from the strange people in the distance. But Bruno longs to be an explorer and decides that there must be more to this desolate new place than meets the eye. While exploring his new environment, he meets another boy whose life and circumstances are very different from his own, and their meeting results in a friendship that has devastating consequences.
