MOLLY BYRON
The Papers of Thomas Jefferson, Volume 44 BoD - Books on Demand Aaron Burr fells Alexander Hamilton in a duel in July, but Jefferson, caring little for either adversary or for disruptive partisan warfare, gives the event only limited notice. He contends with the problem of filling the offices necessary for the establishment of Orleans Territory on October 1. He is constrained by his lack of knowledge about potential officeholders. Meanwhile, a delegation with a memorial from disgruntled Louisianians travels to Washington. In August, the U.S. Mediterranean squadron bombards Tripoli. The United States has uneasy relationships around its periphery. Jefferson compiles information on British "aggressions" in American ports and waters, and drafts a bill to allow federal judges and state governors to call on military assistance when British commanders spurn civil authority. Another bill seeks to prevent merchant ships from arming for trade with Haiti. Contested claims to West Florida, access to the Gulf of Mexico, tensions along the Texas-Louisiana boundary, and unresolved maritime claims exacerbate relations with Spain. Jefferson continues his policy of pushing Native American nations to give up their lands east of the Mississippi River. Yellow fever has devastating effects in New Orleans. Abigail Adams terminates the brief revival of their correspondence, musing that "Affection still lingers in the Bosom, even after esteem has taken its flight." In November, Jefferson delivers his annual message to Congress. He also commences systematic records to manage his guest lists for official dinners. Bulletin d'information de l'U.G.G.I. Grasset Ce journal, rigoureusement libertin - au sens où Montaigne définit le libertinage comme la "faculté d'aller ici, puis là" -, répond à toutes sortes de questions bizarres. En voici la liste, non exhaustive.

Les pauvres peuvent-ils être libertins ? Quelles leçons sur les hommes un chat peut-il donner ? Que disent les prostituées aux philosophes ? Mondrian aide-t-il à comprendre Venise ? Que serait une philosophie du panache ? Que peut-on écrire du corps de son père ? Quelles mythologies comparées pour l'eau ou le Pétrus ? Quel écrivain désirait être un volcan ? Une érection peut-elle être un auxiliaire de connaissance ? Que veulent les femmes ? Le libertinage est-il toujours de droite ? Comment peut-on aimer Diogène et de Gaulle ? Qu'est-ce qu'un philosophe libertin ? Voilà un florilège de questions, parmi d'autres...
